Chapter 0- 13 Bad Luck

Magic is a mystical art that can be innate or learned or conquered by pacts, Witches and Wizards are born with magical gift and powers, Magician learns to use magic, through rituals and channeling of the forces of nature, some not satisfied with their magical weakness, resorts to other sources, such as covenants and agreements with spirits, deities/egregores and entities.

Mallory, the New Supreme went back in time to kill Michael Langdon the Antichrist, but the Devil was smarter, nothing would hinder his hellish plans to bring darkness all over the world. The Antichrist is the profane son of a Human and a Spirit with evil genetics (with evil blood), by this profane body quickly makes his powers flourish, with the help of Dark Wizards or Dark Occultist who receive strength and magic from Satan, so Michael Langdon learned to use his powers and to develop them, and thus ruined the world with the Apocalypse, but Mallory using his temporal power prevented him from going back in time.

Since time travel does not affect the other realms of existence, because time on the spiritual planes works differently, so some have visions and have knowledge of temporal changes, such as Pope League, Myrtle, and even demons. Mallory after moving lived with a fusion of her "I from the past" and Memories of her alternate life, and with her kindness, helped Queenie, Misty, Madison, by taking them out of hell.

Misty stayed for a while with Cordelia (SHIPP/Romantically) and at the academy, but it was with Stevie Nicks on their tour, Madison, Zoe, Queenie became the witch council alongside the board of wizards (warlocks), with Behold Chablis, John Henry Moore and Baldwin Pennypacker who dethroned Ariel Augustus with their ruses with Satanists.

Many witches were trained and graduated, and with so many graduates, the academy returned with its state of few students, Mallory helped Cocco, a witch who began her studies very late, who was her friend in the old life, while Madison, Zoe and Quennie trained new students like Ophelia, Morwenna who demonstrates an incredible and powerful power of rejuvenation, of controlling the age or time of matter.

Kyle is watching television, and the newspaper shows investigations into a plane crash, with few surviousses, among them Asheley and Ben DeSoto who stood in New York as a caretaker for a wealthy elderly man in the dark Manhattan residential called The Apollyon. Ben still carried trauma from his past, and an obsession and phobia of number 13, with the help of his mysterious friend and survival companion of the plane crash, but distrusted his intentions and his strange behaviors.

Working in the Apollyon residence on floor 13, he has strange dreams and fear of the 87-year-old, who seemed to have something dark running through his veins and bones, and his companion Constance Langdon, who was a mysterious and melancholy old woman, who hid Mr.'s true identity Nas, that he was the Devil himself.

The Devil had a plan that was being executed, in addition to the rituals to strengthen him, he needed some sacrifices to age him for his infernal ascension, and in addition he needs to take revenge on the witches, ensure that they did not try to stop his plans. So it sends its diabolical emissaries as omens and plagues that killed the witches and wizards.

Hawthorne Academy*

At the Academy of Warlocks, the devil sends his plagues to take revenge on the traitors of the ancient Antichrist, so he sends evil and unholy snakes that infest the academy, John Henry Moore is training 3 novices, when the fire of the fireplace increases in size and snakes come out of the flames, and everyone is afraid.

“Boys, come out!” John Moore says manipulating the water from the glass and throwing it into the snakes that feel the water boiling their skins.

William Banks, using his telekinesis, who threw some snakes to the wall, but John was frightened by the resistance of the serpents, and felt something evil that he needed to purify.

“I take care of it!” says John Henry Moore, using his Pyrokinesis to manipulate the fire of the fireplace to burn the snakes in a jet of flames, and a smell of sulfur surrounds the place and the flames form a figure that terrifies John, as if he had something familiar, almost a deja vu, Behold Chablis appears without understanding.

“What’s going on?” asks Behold Chablis.

“Serpents broke into the academy.” John says thinking.

Was it a prank?... Who was it? - asks Behold Chablis.

— [No!] There's something evil in the air... We have to convene the Chancellors and meet the Traditional Council. I need to speak to the Supreme.

Ben DeSoto eventually found out about being the Devil’s son through artificial insemination, using the genes of the devil’s human form, so his power is weaker than Michael Langdon, son of a Spirit attached to the devil and possessed by himself to raise an unholy child, who makes the powers flourish quickly, in the contract of Ben, son of human parents, but his father has evil blood, so the Devil has to force the bloom of the powers.

But it was not unique, Consasse and Fiona discovers that they are sisters and daughters of the devil, even Madison points out similarity that had never repaired, the genes of the devil hinders the actively of powers, Constasse for pulling the devilish side of his father, had a difficulty in magic, but it was not a hindrance, Fiona pulled the blood of his mother, sister Jude, a fair that feared his powers and his sister-like, and so his psychosis was never manifested.

The Warlocks of the council arrive after the attack in the academy with snakes and with attack against the witches of the resurrected spirits, among them was Fiona who betrayed them and aligned herself to her daughter, Cordelia, the current Supreme. The Union of Witches and Wizards of the Traditional Coven and with Coven Voodoo would be the only opposition against the Devil, Dinah, the acting Queen of Voodoo refused to enter the fight, but Pope league forced her to be allied.

The novice witches talked to novice wizards, but Satanists/Dark Occultists guided by the devil attack the witches as revenge and in an attempt to kill Mallory.

Ben discovers that when he was a child, he was raised by Satanist and induced by a spell to grow old and grow fast.

Ariel Augustus tries to have his revenge against Mallory and the other wizards, but is defeated by Cordelia, Ben uses his powers in the fight, and while using, he feels a bad feeling, as a temptation to greed for power, who had to resist. Madison takes him to the room to talk.

Constance and Fiona train the powers using the occultists as guinea pigs, Arianna Graces manifests their power of transformation, and once the occultists become rats.

Constance meets Michael Langdon and talks, and reconciles.

Arianna Graces, Morwenna and Ophelia talk to William Banks who flirts with Arianna, Morwenna flirts with Ophelia.

Marie Laveau makes her plan about the satan baby, but when Cordelia and Quennie does, attacked, Ben was distracting the Devil, who already knew of his plans, so I send his servant to attack the witches during the ritual, the devil's emissary stab Cordelia who only took a few years of the Devil's life, Quennie uses his power of telekinesis and pushes the Doctor from evil to the distance, and uses his power.

Cordelia dies, Ben lets go and goes back to the gym, Fiona and Constance and Madison tries to help Cordelia, if Fiona could be revived and a spirit can walk together with the living again, Cordelia could too.

Myrtle Snow and the 3 newcomers with Coco, start in hiding the test for Sovereignty of Mallory, if declared supreme, would be a witch powerful enough to defeat the devil. Ben could be used as a spy by this one connected to the devil.

Before the battle, Mallory uses his temporal power to travel back in time and discover lost spells, using a cloning spell, where he made copies of the grimorios.

With the ritual done by Marie Laveau sacrificing some remaining Satanists, she manages to imbue the witches and wizards with a powerful magic that manifests with different powers. Like a bloody blessing, and so prepare for the fight.

Ben and Madison go to the room and after making love, Madison becomes pregnant and has a daughter, afraid, and taken with her daughter by Zoe and Kyle elsewhere.

Together they will face the hellish army that was very, wizards and witches walk the streets and in the hotel, cast their magic and powerful powers.

The ultimate and grand battle, with incredible power struggle. Spirits, snakes and Demons attack, but are weak with the aura of the union of witches and wizards.

The Devil, seeing his army fall, reveals himself and ready to fight, Ben and Michael appear and immobilize him with a cross blessed by magic, Quennie, Marie Laveau and Dinah use the spell that Cordelia did not finish to weaken the Devil, so with Cordelia resurfaced and Mallory casts the spell to destroy the Devil, but ends up that Ben dies along.

It was what the Supremes thought, the Devil was imprisoned in a work of art, and Ben's body was sprayed, Hell was without a king, Pope league invokes Ben's spirit from the ashes through fire and the crown as king and decides to rule.

Ben goes to Madison and talk and see his daughter.

Constance and Michael are training for Fiona and seem to be evolving together and improving as a person, Mallory suspects, but as Supreme has his responsibilities, Quennie travels with Dinah and Marie Laveau, who only has a few days to return to hell. Coco trains newbies with Myrtle Snow who pays for her sins by educating new witches to use their powers for good.

Cordelia faked her death for most of the coven, she lives with Misty Day in a house (Possibly the Murder House house) with Zoe, Kyle and Madison with her baby, which Ben visits sometimes.

With the help of the Wizards, the magic that recalibrated, rewarded men with powerful magic that compares to those of witches women, as if now witches and wizards are equal, Myrtle Snow realized this, and joins with wizards trains new students in a gym that unites witches and wizards.

Mallory and Cocco with the newbies, need to deal with magical problems in this world that seems to have been blessed by magical wonders, but something inside Mallory, told her that the hidden of the world was awakening.

Chapter 2: T0E1 - 13 Apostles

And an expansion of the Season 13 idea, what the season would look like in my view.

In this world there are places that are spiritual bores to hell, called the Mouth of Hell, ghost or souls of the dead get stuck in that place, if they die or their body is buried in the mouth of hell. The Devil can use these spiritual tears and ruptures to induce his evil intuitions or make his profanity manifest in these places, and can inseminate his evil ideas.

With the death of the Antichrist, the Devil needed a new one, Timothy and Emily who had their story rewritten by Mallory's journey, they met, married and went to live in a house that seemed normal, but stood in a mouth of hell, so the devil in his spiritual form, possesses Timothy to generate a baby and so was born Devan Campbell.

Timothy and Emily were parents overwhelmed by agitated motherhood, Benjamin Devan Campbell DeSoto was always an agitated baby, and evolved quickly, during an exit, Devan Campbell ends up killing his nanny, which makes his unholy side awaken slightly, but enough to attract ravens and followers of the Devil. With the arrival of the infernal Emissaries, he placed Devan Campbell, the new Antichrist in the way of the hellish planes, from that moment, Devan’s life was manipulated and orchestrated by the Devil himself, waiting for his Ascension.

In this world there are Magical Wonders, Magic is a mystical art that can be innate or learned or conquered by pacts, Witches and Wizards are born with magical gift and powers, Magician learns to use magic, through rituals and channeling of the forces of nature, some not satisfied with their magical weakness, resorts to other sources, such as pacts and agreements with spirits, deities/egregores and entities.

Cordelia was happy with her evolved Coven and rising, she hoped that the glory of the Witches would return with a new magical era, but while training Ophelia's newbie with Madison, a windstorm appears around the Academy of Miss Robichaux, as if it were a hurry, a warning, a white serpent with black blood appears crawling into the academy, the students are soothed to use

While Zoe and Kyle were watching television, and the newspaper shows investigations into a plane crash, with few overcomings, among them Asheley and Ben DeSoto who stood up in New York City as a caretaker for a wealthy senior in Manhattan's shadowy residential called The Apollyon. Ben still carried trauma from his past, and an obsession and phobia of number 13, with the help of his mysterious friend and survival companion of the plane crash, but distrusted his intentions and his strange behaviors.

Chapter 3: T0E2 - Friday 13

Working in the Apollyon residence on floor 13, Benjamin Devan Campbell DeSoto or Ben DeSoto has strange dreams and fear of the 87-year-old, who seemed to have something dark running through his veins and bones, and his companion Constance Langdon, who was a mysterious, melancholy old woman, who hid Mr.'s true identity. Nas, that he was the Devil himself.

The Devil had a plan that was being executed, in addition to the rituals to strengthen him, through some sacrifices to age him to his infernal ascension, Constance Langdon arranged everything with his children and some resurrected Infernal Spirits, on the underground floor was where the hellish ritual was, sacrificing some beings that stirred the blood of the veins of Mr.'s body. Nas.

Also you need to take revenge on the witches, make sure you have not tried to stop your plans. So it sends its diabolical emissaries as omens and plagues that killed the witches and wizards.

Hawthorne Academy*

At the Academy of Warlocks, the devil sends his plagues to take revenge on the traitors of the ancient Antichrist, so he sends evil and unholy snakes that infest the academy, John Henry Moore is training 3 novices, when the fire of the fireplace increases in size and snakes come out of the flames, and everyone is afraid.

“What’s going on?” asks Behold Chablis, impressed by the white snakes.

“Serpents broke into the academy.” John says thinking.

Was it a prank?... Who was it? - asks Behold Chablis.

— [No!] There's something evil in the air... We have to convene the Chancellors and meet the Traditional Council. I need to speak to the Supreme.

Ben was very confused about everything in his life, memories and even doubted more and more of his friend, Asheley, another survivor of plane 13, he needed an answer, together they go to his old house, strange memories awaken when Ben goes to his childhood room, Asheley tries to help him remember and awaken his hidden side. But something intervenes, a supernatural force intervenes and Ben awakens from a kind of hypnosis, made by Asheley.

What are you doing? What did you do? - asks Ben in anger and walks out to your house, and with his assistant on, he manages to decipher answers to his questions, Asheley soon went to a bar, where he found Constance to tell his report with the mission of the Antichrist.

Ben with the answers was to face Mr. In the, but the Devil was waiting for him, and told his plan of ascension, Ben did not like it, and needed to find something to prevent, meanwhile, the witches are attacked by hellish spirits, but one of them was Fiona Goode, who resists the evil influence and helps her daughter face the hellish spirits, Cordelia realized that it was a declaration of war of the devil himself.

The Supremes unite to make agreement with Pope League, with the union of the witches of the Traditional Coven and Coven Voodoo, would be a great force against the Devil, and so Mallory needs to tell the truth blows the Supreme Future and Michael Langdon, Madison is quiet thinking about the end of the world and yet never knew true love, after a gynecological examination, realized that it would be difficult to get pregnant.

But the witches are scared of someone mysteries knocking on your door. But Ben DeSoto was not unique with infernal genes, Constasse discovers that she and Supreme Fiona Goode are sisters and daughters of the devil, the genes of the devil hinders the actively of powers, Constasse for pulling the devilish side of her father, had a difficulty in magic, but it was not a hindrance, Fiona pulled the blood of her mother, sister Jude, a fair that feared her powers and her sister-institude and so she was not a reflex.

Ben was still dealing with his devilish inheritance, and something makes him approach Madison, as if now away from the Devil, God puts acting in Ben's life, and showing the wonders of that world, the good things that would be lost by the Devil's plans.

Ben could be used as a spy for this one connected to the devil, so Madison and Ben cast a protective spell at the Academy, to prevent the influence of the Devil's from hitting that place, but it wasn't 100% safe, so Madison distracts him with a romantic dinner.

Chapter 4: T0E3-13 Traitors

The Warlocks of the council arrive after the attack in the academy with snakes and with attack against the witches of the resurrected spirits, among them was Fiona who betrayed them and aligned herself to her daughter, Cordelia, the current Supreme. The Union of Witches and Wizards of the Traditional Coven and with Coven Voodoo would be the only opposition against the Devil, Dinah, the acting Queen of Voodoo refused to enter the fight, but Pope league forced her to be allied.

Cordelia and Mallory try to plan a plan against the Devil, in understanding the history of the Antichrist and Agreement of God and Devil, Pope League talks about the Mouths of Hell, where Ben was born in one of them, were places that spread the influence of the Devil, Ben discovers that when he was a child, was created by Satanist and induced by a spell to grow old and grow quickly, for his body to be strong and ready to awaken from the hidden power, his me.

With knowledge about the Mouths of Hell, Cordelia came up with an idea to close the mouths of hell, so she sends, Mallory, Coco, Zoe and Kyle on the mission to weaken the Devil. With the couple's departure, it was the perfect opportunity for the Dark Occult to take the opportunity to attack, led by former Chancellor Ariel Augustus who was expelled for negotiating with Satanists for a coup against the Supreme.

The novice witches were talking to the young wizards who came from the Hawthorne Academy, Morwenna flirts with Ophelia who laughed at her jokes, while William Banks flirts with Arianna Graces, but soon the fun of the young men and interrupted by a hellish invasion, Ariel Augustus forces the door with his telekinesis.

- Hello, witch! Bye, witches! Ariel Augustus is talking about throwing a fireball at Arianna who reflexly turns the fireball into confetti, purple, glitter, William Banks throwing Ariel Augustus to the wall, the other Satanists attack other young students, Ophelia uses her power to make her target float, and Morwenna uses her firepower to burn the enemy.

Ariel Augustus walks the halls in the search for the Supreme, and comes across Marie Laveau, who uses her Voodoo magic to throw him away, but the other Satanists soon come across the Council's Chancellors, and had no chances with the magic union, Queenie listens to the strange sounds upstairs, when running, she comes across Marie Laveau making sounds with her mouth, while Ariel bleeds.

- Hi, Honey! What's up? - Marie Laveau speaks with a smile.

- Yes! I'll see Cordelia, I think you take care of him. - Queenie speaks with a fake smile, hiding her fear. As she walked, through the corridors, they come across a short-haired blonde lady sitting next to Fiona, it was Constance Langdon. Queenie and Madison were surprised by the similarity, even Madison points out similarity that she had never noticed.

Ben in another room, uses his powers in struggle against Miriam Mead, and while using, he feels a bad feeling, as a temptation to greed for power, which he had to resist. Madison opens the door and sees Miriam Mead suffocated on the floor, Ben was afraid of herself, she takes him to his room, to talk.

Constance and Fiona, still trying to understand the similarity and the family connection, Fiona decides that fair will train the powers of Constance using the occultists as guinea pigs, Arianna Graces manifests her power of transformation, in some occultists who turn rats, Fiona crushes with her jump.

At the door of the Academy, had a Hellish Spirit in the lurk, Constance feels something familiar, and soon see the face she recognizes, was Michael Langdon, his devilish grandson, Constance feels something within himself, as if from that moment, she was sure she could improve things, away from the mouth of hell and out of reach of the Devil's influence, she could forward Michael Langdon to the right path, Fiona helps.

Mallory and the others come back with the mouths of hell closed or weakened, so Marie Laveau colcoa in practice her plan about the baby satan, but when Cordelia and Quennie does, attacked, Ben was distracting the Devil, who already knew of his plans, so I send his servant to attack the witches during the ritual, the devil's emissary to stab Cordelia, who only took a few years of power.

Cordelia dies, Ben lets go and goes back to the gym, Fiona and Constance and Madison tries to help Cordelia, if Fiona could be revived and a spirit can walk together with the living again, Cordelia could too.

Myrtle Snow and the 3 newcomers with Coco, start in hiding the test for Sovereignty of Mallory, if declared supreme, would be a witch powerful enough to defeat the devil.

Before the battle, Mallory uses his temporal power to travel back in time, on a Myrtle mission to find lost spells and powerful knowledge from the time of Salem, using a cloning spell, where he made copies of the knowledge in his enchanted grimoire.

With the Mallory ritual brought by space and time, Marie Laveau launches the ritual by sacrificing some remaining Satanists in rat forms, thus managing to imbue the witches and wizards of a powerful magic that manifests itself through differentiated powers.

As a bloody blessing, and so prepare for struggle, Ben and Madison go to the room and to make love of farewell, in case of everything wrong, but with the little condom burst, Madison ends up fulfilling her desire to get pregnant and has a daughter, as if it were the last blessing of the Celestial Temptation, the last trick or last revelation of the Wonders of this world, but Madison was afraid, when looking at her daughter with a towel of her little one.

Mallory knew that she needed someone to distract or immobilize the Devil, it would not be an easy fight, a dark army awaited her, ready to die for the Evil Devil's Plan. But as long as they are together and united, they will be able to face the hellish army that was the majority, the Devil was ready for a War, so the wizards and witches walk the streets and even the hotel, Cordelia invades with his telecysis and Mallory teleports them all to floor 13 and cast their magic and powerful powers on the henchmen of the Devil.

The ultimate and grand battle, with incredible power struggle. Spirits, snakes and Demons attack, but are weak with the aura of the union of witches and wizards. The Power of Ritual had amplified the magic force to a grand level, Madison was with her daughter in her room, wishing, almost praying for Ben to come out alive from the fight.

The Devil, seeing his army fall, reveal itself and ready to fight, he uses his powers against Cordelia who deflects the fireballs, using his teleckinesis, and a mind control struggle acoetec, Cordelia mentally resists as much as he can, until Ben and Michael appear and immobilizes him with a cross blessed by magic.

Queenie, Marie Laveau and Dinah use the spell that Cordelia did not finish to weaken the Devil's body, so Cordelia resurfaces and Mallory casts the spell together, holding each other's hand, to destroy the Devil, a wave of energy emerges, like a destructive gust towards the Devil, but ends up that Ben dies along.

It was what the Supremes thought, the Devil was pushed and imprisoned in a work of art, an Entity like Devil, it would hardly be destroyed, but it could be imprisoned, and Ben's body was eventually sprayed, Hell was without a king, a ruler to manage the hellish plan, Pope League invokes Ben's spirit from the ashes through the fire and gives him the crown of hell as a new coronation beforehand.

Ben tells about being the new ruler of hell, but promises to protect and visit the two at the Hotel Apollyon, Cordelia decides to adjust with the creation of their daughter, letting Mallory lead the Coven, and Myrtle take care of the education of the new students.Cordelia pretended her death for most of the coven, she lives with Misty Day with Madison and her baby, which Ben visits sometimes.

Constance and Michael are training for Fiona and seem to be evolving together and improving as a person, Mallory suspects, but as Supreme has his responsibilities, Queenie travels with Dinah and Marie Laveau, who only has a few days to return to hell. Coco trains newbies with Myrtle Snow who pays for her sins by educating new witches to use their powers for good.

With the help of the Wizards, the magic that recalibrated, rewarded men with powerful magic that compares to those of witches women, as if now witches and wizards are equal, Myrtle

Snow realized this, and joins with wizards trains new students in a gym that unites witches and wizards.

Mallory and Cocco with the newbies, need to deal with magical problems in this world that seems to have been blessed by magical wonders, but something inside Mallory, told her that the hidden of the world was awakening.
