With hints of Vanilla Stardust

by Sushipillar

Summary

Vriska and Terezi go stargazing.

Notes

Prompt: vrisrezi
Additonal prompt selected by me: Stargazing

Compared to Alternia, the Earth sky was beautiful, especially at night.

You don't really remem8er how you two got the idea to go stargazing in the first place. Considering Terezi's blindness, one might think this would be a very silly idea for a d8.

But you like to 8elieve you know Terezi better than most, your 8eliefs reaffirmed as you listen to her excitedly point out the sour-blueberry smell of the sky, with hints of vanilla stardust.

You're not watching the sky, though. You're watching as she lights up from all the different smells, the way she cackles at a joke she finds particularly funny, how the grass beneath her sways within the wind, how comfortable and relaxed she looks, despite everything.

As you watch her, you realize that for the first time in your life, you truly feel content.
