I didn't know anyone I wrote here personally. I only borrow their public persona to play. Nothing written here is real and only entertainment purposes in a good way and never a bad intention.

Step to the world
Among the sea of sunflower petals
You will rest peaceful

Hello sunshine
Please never stop dancing with
Tranquil warmth of yours

As the moon shines
He blesses upon your will
The light guides you

Be not afraid
Bringing warmth to the world
As we walk together
